Hi Folks,

Well we are in Florida right now. That is exactly the line I started with last time but no we did not stay here. We've been back and forth to NY several times, Tennessee twice, Georgia twice, Long Beach CA and Alabama. Gets confusing. We are currently spending spring break with our 4 granddaughters. We finally got Cara (8) competent on a bicycle and both she and Jenna (10) have done well in Kayaks. Emily (6) is moving along with training wheels and Becky (4) is on the co-pilot bike with Mom and thinks she can peddle to Alaska. Lots of fun for everyone.

Obviously I have been working on this list in between family stuff and will be very relieved when I hit the send button to our printer in a few minutes. Then it will be the morning errands. Gotta go pick up our pontoon boat at Joanie's sisters house, it was too dark to bring it back last night after our pizza dinner visit. Then the hardware store (kids break stuff ☺). Later I have to make a trip up to Sarasota to try to close a deal on a pretty large and interesting collection. Tomorrow we will go to a small island and have a picnic and maybe a Japanese restaurant for dinner where they do that fancy volcano stuff with the onions.

We fly home after the weekend and prepare for the Baltimore show starting Thursday. Starting late April or early May we may have to skip some of our scheduled shows. Some necessary medical treatment needs to be performed and will most likely interfere with our travel schedule so if you plan to visit with us at any shows after April 17th please check until the end of June.

This list contains many interesting items in both coins and currency. There is an unusually diverse section of large size including many obsolete issues. We have broken down 5 individual sets of Buffalo nickels, at least one type set, a good selection of three cent pieces and many difficult to find items, especially in higher grades of Barber and Walking Liberty halves. There is also a very varied selection of world coins.

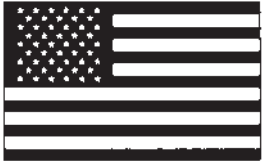

LIST 303, March 2017

Happy Collecting

Harry
